On October 23, 2020, at approximately 1420 hours, officers assigned to Central Patrol Division were flagged down in the area of E. 11th Street and S. Los Angeles Street by citizens reporting a robbery suspect. The officers located the suspect and attempted make a pedestrian stop on S. Main Street, just north of 11th Street. When they did so, the suspect, Vanessa Nunez, turned and fired two rounds at the officers from a semiautomatic pistol resulting in an officer involved shooting.

Suspect Nunez dropped her weapon and was subsequently taken into custody without further incident. She was treated at scene by Los Angeles Fire Department paramedics for minor injuries sustained by breaking glass but was determined not to have been struck by gunfire.

A Glock Model 19 semiautomatic pistol was recovered from the scene.

Although one of Suspect Nunez' rounds struck the officers' marked black and white police vehicle, no officers were injured during the incident.

Force Investigation Division responded to the scene and is handling both the administrative and criminal investigations.
